You don't trust people much, do you
You're so empty

Your name is Eiya?
How old are you?
20
Oh, I thought you were older
Both of us are 21 years old
So

Why did you go out with this girl, if you're gay?
Eiya?
It's just like she said...
I become impossibly in love with this guy
Then kiss him, right here
No
You wouldn't want to do something like that infront of others, either, right?

Mm
!?
Hey Do you want to play a Game?
What the hell are you talking about?

Look at those 2 custamers aver there
If you con guess correctly what the relatianship of thase two, is, I'll tell you everything
They're just a normal couple, right?
They're not a couple or anything
They probably just met
At a couples website ar something
Huh!?
No
Maybe they come from a club?

How did you know!?
Just a feeling
I'll tell you, but
Only with you, since you're the only one that guessed correctly
Am I right? Then tell me, as you promised
He's such a dick!
I never thought he was such douche!
Be careful of him!
He's definately after you, Eiyo
Tomorrow at 2 pm, Inokashira Park, I'll wait infront of the Boat ride
Y... Yeah

大田ユウガ…か
"Ota Yuuga.. Huh..
I'm Actually ....

Not Gay at all!
Yeah, I know
That was the reason you broke up?
Not exactly, no
She burped inside the car
I couldn't stand her burping

There are people who let anything slide with people they love
Yeah, I sorta understand that feeling
I thought that if that were the case, then I certainly couldn't be with her ony longer
I couldn't forgive her burping in front of me, even though I liked her
It's not that I don't like her onymore
So I thought up of the best way to break up with her
I thought that this method would harm her the least
It was best to get her to acknowledge our break up
It's also because I like to be mean sometimes
So you pretended to be gay? That's weird too, isn't it?
It was hard, I had to go and buy a real looking Dildo
There is even some sense of kindness to what he did
It's true that that girl is hard headed and probably wouldn't have backed off without a good reason.

This was all so Stupid
I can't believe I was thinking of punching you if you hand't given me a good reason
Then maybe you should get one in, right now?
It's not good to feel regret, you know?
People can't see us in here
And I can't run away anywhere
Huh
You have a nice body
Working out is a hobby of mine, I just wanted to show you that a bit
Look
But, aside from that, I hove something important I want to discuss
Some-thing impor-tant?

It's about you, Eiyo
!?
You remember what happened at the Restouront, right?
How did you know about the two?
I knew about the two because I overheard their conversation
But you found out just by looking at them, why?
It was just my intuition
If I were to give a reason, then...
It's because she looked like she wanted to go home,

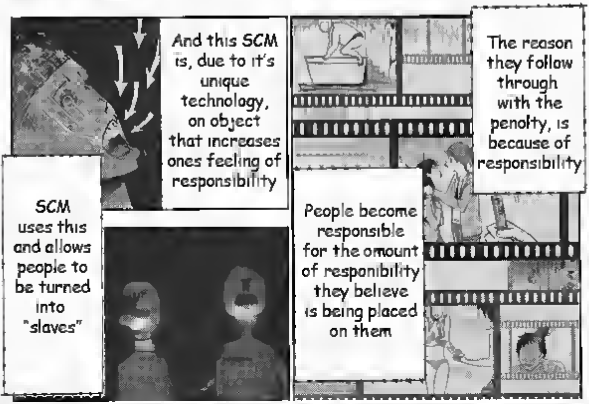
She was looking at her cell a lot,
That's amazing, you really saw all that...
She was quick in eating her food,
It's cause there was a mirror behind you, so I could see the entire store...
And she kept folding her legs
ゴ
Huh?
The hell are you talkin about?
It has to be you!
Hey... The boot!
I've been searching for a person like you!

カラオケ
SCM?
Is that a name of band?
——エイア 君に聞いて ほしいことがあるんだ
I...Only listen to Reggae
You may not believe me, but....

With this,
I can....
Make someone
my slave

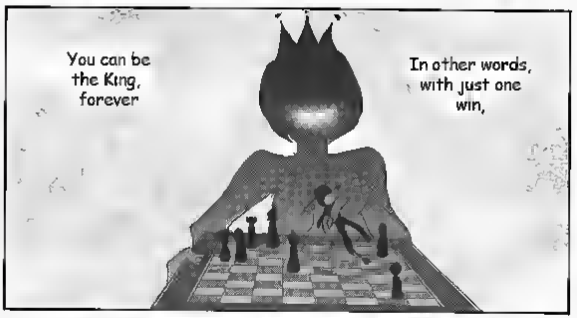
Take a look at this
But...
I couldn't believe it myself either, at first
...What?
Well, of course you wouldn't believe me
An Instruction booklet...?
The SCM are used by being placed behind your teeth
And?
あなたの上の 歯 は10本ありますか？

Have you ever played "Follow the king's orders" at a party? Have you ever seen those stupid Celebrities in those penalty games, do crazy stunts as a penalty for losing? They set the penalty at something that no one wants to do. So why do they still do it?



And this SCM is, due to it's unique technology, an object that increases ones feeling of responsibility
The reason they follow through with the penalty, is because of responsibility
SCM uses this and allows people to be turned into "slaves"
People become responsible for the amount of responibility they believe is being placed on them

-When the winnder is decided, the loser will feel "Responsibility" and become the slave of the winner
-The duel can be in any form they wish
-Two people with the SCM enter into a duel
[How to use the SCM]
WIN!
SCM
LOSE…
1 SCM



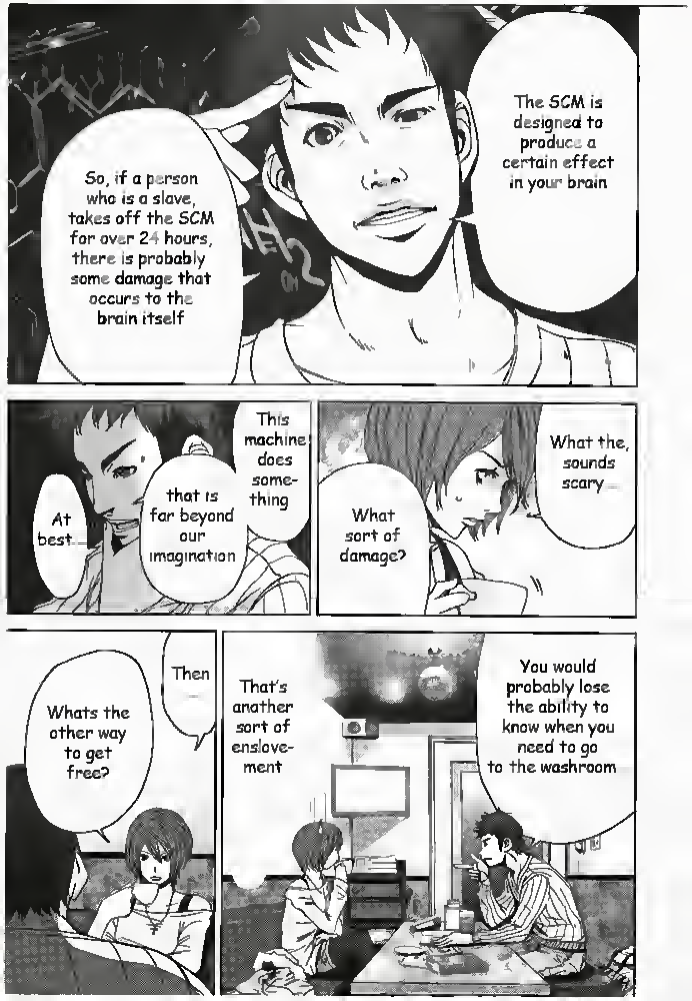
You can be the King, forever
In other words, with just one win,

HI

-Sounds fake!
This thing that looks like a mouth-guard, right...
Oh really
That was originally sold at a net auction for a couple dollars
But now, some people are paying 60,000 dollars for it
I will return it
I see... I know why you believe in this now
Huh? 60k dollars? You gotta be kidding me right? This little thing?
But just because it costs a lot, doesn't mean it can actually turn someone into a slave, right?
Yeah

Thats why
I'm going to test the SCM, right now!!
You said you were going to test it, are you talking about turning me into a slave?
Haha, no
So you had 2 of them
I bought it before the price went up
...How much did it cost?
2 for $18, shipping included
Or rather

A partner
and some insurance?
Yeah, take a look at this
What I want, is a partner, and some insurance
This is...
How a slave is set free
Well that sounds easy enough
24H
The first is to take out your SCM for over 24 hours
Even if you become a slave, there are ways to get free
There are 2 ways in total to be free from being a slave
Yeah
But this carries with it a harsh penalty
Penalty ?
It's only briefly mentioned in the explanation manual, but



The SCM is designed to produce a certain effect in your brain
So, if a person who is a slave, takes off the SCM for over 24 hours, there is probably some damage that occurs to the brain itself
This machine does something that is far beyond our imagination
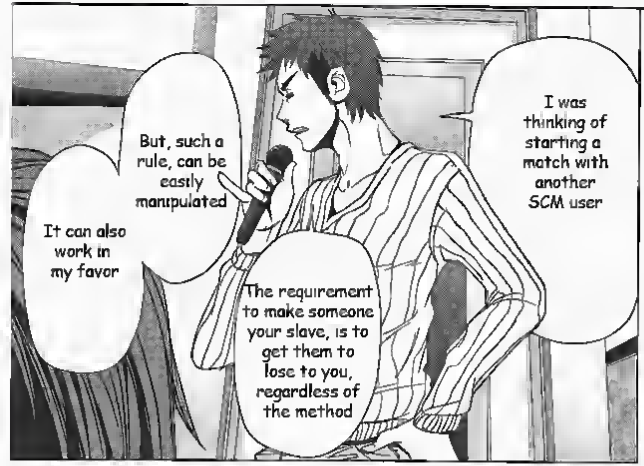
At best...
What the, sounds scary...
What sort of damage?
Then...
Whats the other way to get free?
That's another sort of enslavement
You would probably lose the ability to know when you need to go to the washroom

That's why
I have 30,000 dollars in this bank account
The Master who owns the slave, has to announce that he is letting the slave go free
But for a master to let his slave go free... will probably never happen
Amazing! Did you make all that your-self?
This $30k
Is for When I become a slave to someone else,
Wait, why me!
It's "Insurance", so that you will come and free me

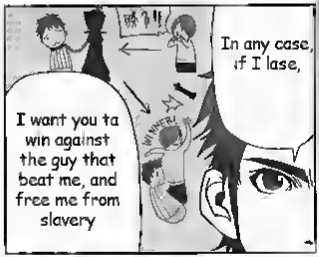


I was thinking of starting a match with another SCM user
But, such a rule, can be easily manipulated
It can also work in my favor
The requirement to make someone your slave, is to get them to lose to you, regardless of the method

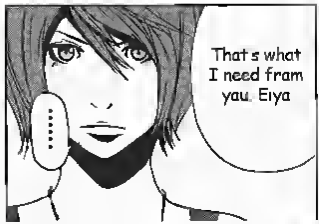
That's quite the confidence you got there
But even so
I won't lose to anyone!
If I do lose,
I need a partner who can win against the person I lost to

The qualitificatians are ta have trust, and intelligence
And abave all the ability ta mave quickly, and ta have guts

I won't deny that!
Haha!
Yau're thinking that yau laak cool right naw, don't you?



In any case, if I lase,
I want you ta win against the guy that beat me, and free me from slavery
WINNER!



That's what I need fram yau, Eiya
.....

110
Eiya! You're the only person that can be my partner!

We've only met a couple times, and yet you're trusting me so easily
I set it don't completely but not what this SCM does BTW
That doesn't matter
I heard some stories about you from the other girl, and I was already a bit curious
And after talking to you for a bit, I know that you are smart and trustworthy
And besides
We'll see each other plenty from now on
I wouldn't mind giving you the other SCM and my Bank statements either!
That you want to duel with, do you have someone in mind already?
Yeah
歌舞伎町一番街
So...
The person...

3 days ago, when I was walking past o Host Club, It reacted. The alarm went off!!
キィーッ
When two people with SCM's come close, the SCM reacts, and tells each of us, that a user is nearby
Why do you want a slove that badly?
I don't have o reason, specif-ically
I'm interested in owning a slove, but...
I think You would understand why
I will first bring my duel to him, I'm sure he knows that I exist as well

I want to...
Test myself
You'd understand, right, Eiya?
ドン
自分を試す…
*Test myself...
ドクン
冷めた私の中に
熱く―― うねり始めた重油
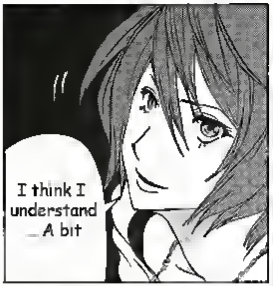
Eiya
*Something hot, stirring inside of my once Cold body....



I think I understand
A bit

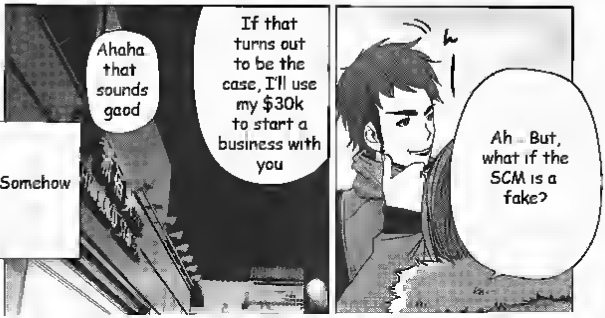
Then let's go, together

The real me, wants to explode
I've had this energy pent up inside me
The cold, uncaring me, was only a lie
And had the spark to do so, all along
That's why I need someone smart, like you, Eiyal
You're truly are an idiot

Thank
You

Read the instruction manual, carefully
I'll need some time to da some investigation beforehand, but I'll be moving out and acting, soon

I will definately tell yau when I'll make my move, though
I will da what I can, as well



Somehow
Ahaha that sounds good
If that turns out to be the case, I'll use my $30k to start a business with you
Ah... But, what if the SCM is a fake?

I had half believed this absurd claim that I hadn't even considered ta be true, a while ago
Oata Yuuga new samething abaut me It wasn't his arguments that canvinced me—
He knew that there was samething within me that wanted, but couldn't get aut And that we were similar ta each ather
Our meeting
I didn't knaw that I would have deeply regretted
But, at the time,

If possible, I would've wanted to return
To myself, at that point in time

A time before
I had known that this evil object
even existed....

Is there someone that youd rather watch, writhing in pain, rather than kill him outright?
To me, there is..

and no, that is a

and not a secret
